

Hadar Khazzam-Horovitz, Ph.D.

hadarkh@uw.edu

Education

Ph.D. in Law, 2013

University of Washington School of Law, Seattle, Washington

Dissertation: Safeguarding the Ethical Conduct of Biomedical Research in Israel against Conflict of Interest

Advisors: Prof. Anna Mastroianni, Prof. Veronica Taylor, Prof. Thomas Hazlet and Prof. Kelly Edwards

L.L.M. in Intellectual Property and Law Policy, 2007

University of Washington School of Law, Seattle, Washington

Thesis: Embryonic Stem Cells & Moral/Ethical Criteria on Patentability

Advisor: Prof. Sean O'Connor

L.L.B [Law Degree] with minor in Criminal Law, 1999

Academic College of Law, Israel

Magna cum laude

Professional Experience

Since 2019

Assistant Teaching Professor

Department of Middle Eastern Languages and Cultures, (former NELC) University of Washington

Teaching elementary and intermediate Modern Hebrew language skills, including reading, writing, listening comprehension, and written and oral expression. Developed and integrated curriculum with different and innovative instructional approaches and techniques, such as online readings and questions, recordings for listening comprehension, and PowerPoint slides with emphasis of content being relevant to the students' lives.

Bioethics: Secular & Jewish Perspectives, Department of Middle Eastern Languages and Cultures University of Washington

Developed and designed a new course. Teaching legal & ethical frameworks of contemporary biomedical and research practices from the perspectives of the secular and Jewish in Israel and the US, including issues relating to abortions, infertility treatments, clinical trials, and genetic engineering. This is also offered with diversity credit delving on contemporary health inequities associated with ethnicity and religion.

2006 – 2018

Modern Hebrew Instructor (part time lecturer)

Department of Near Eastern Language and Civilization, University of Washington

Teaching elementary Modern Hebrew language skills, including reading, writing, listening comprehension, and written and oral expression.

2013 - 2017

IRB Member

Human Subject Division, University of Washington

Reviewing research application for ethical and regulatory compliance

2009 - 2016 Guest Lecturer
Professional Master of Science Program in Biomedical Regulatory Affairs, University of Washington
Teaching principles of medical ethics as well as analyzing the US and Israeli biomedical regulatory regimes

2008 Teaching Assistant/Grader
Jackson School of International Studies, University of Washington
Co-teaching SIS150 (Israel: Dynamic Society & Global Flashpoint and Israel life) &, Grader SISJE 490 (Life in Israel)

2007 Research Assistant for the Intellectual Property Program
Intellectual Property Master Program, University of Washington School of Law
Conducted legal research and edited articles for the department's newsletter.

1996-2002 Attorney
R. Levitan & Co., Tel Aviv, Israel
Specialized in insurance litigation and managed claims for major foreign insurers operating in Israel. Specialized in all phases of insurance litigation practice in various areas including Bankers Blanket Bonds (BBB) policy, Directors and Officers Liability (D&O), and personal injury. Managed Claims for major foreign insurers including Lloyds, Swiss Re and A.I.G. Responsibility included: attending trials and mediations, advising on legal issues impacting claim resolution, setting claim reserves, and conducting negotiations with policyholders, claimants, and attorneys.

Publication

2021 Memorial Book of Mizocz (Mizoch, Ukraine) 1961
Translated from Hebrew to English "The 17th of September 1939" chapter of a memorial book of personal reminiscences from Holocaust survivors commemorating Jewish life in the Ukrainian town, Mizoch.

2022 Memorial Book of Mizocz (Mizoch, Ukraine) 1961
Translated from Hebrew to English "The Beitar Movement and the Youth in Mizoch" chapter of a memorial book of personal reminiscences from Holocaust survivors commemorating Jewish life in the Ukrainian town, Mizoch.

Departmental Service

2023 Member of MELC's communication committee, responsible for creating, producing, and editing students' testimonials videos for the departmental newsletter and social media.

2022 Member of the search committee for the Assistant Professor position for the Jewish Languages, Literatures and Cultures of the Eastern Mediterranean for NELC department.

2021 Observed and wrote to assistant teaching professor Shahrzad Shams a peer review evaluation.

Since 2013 Organized Hebrew conversation table at the UW.

2020-2012 Participated in the planning committee for minor in NELC languages, including reviewing and developing a minor in Modern Hebrew.

Awards

2022 Received course development grant by Department of Near Eastern Language and Civilization, University of Washington.

2022 Received course development grant by the Stroum Center for Jewish Studies of the Jackson School of International Studies, University of Washington.

Public Talks

2023 Jewish Perspectives on Abortion, Limmud Seattle 2023.

2020 From the Nuremberg trials to the birth of modern bioethics, part of the Stroum Center for Jewish Studies weekly lecture series Lessons (Not) Learned from the Holocaust, Stroum Center for Jewish Studies UW.

2019 Can patients refuse lifesaving treatment? A comparative review of secular, Jewish and Israeli Perspectives, Hillel organization at UW.

2019 Medical Experimentation: Past, Present & Future, Stroum Center for Jewish Studies UW.

2018 Abortion in the Jewish Perspective, Hillel organization at UW.

2016 How Religion and Democracy Affect Women's Rights in Israel, Hadassah Organization Seattle.

2015 The Resurrection of the Hebrew Language, Congregation Beth Shalom Seattle.

Professional Development

2021 Conference on Medicine & Religion, remotely via zoom conference.

2019 Seminar in Hebrew Pedagogy, University of Denver CO.

2016 Conference on Medicine & Religion, Huston TX.

Professional Membership

National Association of Professors of Hebrew (NAPH) - 2017

Israeli bar Association – 2000

Courses Taught at UW

- MODHEB 101/511, 102/512, 103/513 Elementary Modern Hebrew

- MODHEB 201/521, 202/522, 203/523 Intermediate Modern Hebrew
- MODHEB 105 Intensive Elementary Modern Hebrew
- BH 339 A, JEW ST. 339 A, NEAR E 328 A Bioethics: Secular & Jewish Perspectives (3)
- BH 497 B, JSIS C 489 A, PHIL 301, BH 597 Bioethics: Secular & Jewish Perspectives (5)
- SIS 150, NEAR E 150 Israel: Dynamic Society & Global Flashpoint and Israel life
- SIS JE 490 Life in Israel
- BH 600 A Independent Study/research – Jewish bioethics
- MODHEB 490 A Independent Study – Modern Hebrew

Research Interests

Second language acquisition, bioethics, intellectual property, insurance and reinsurance law, gender advocacy and multicultural conflicts.

Languages

English & Hebrew – fluent

German – basic